

SELECTIVE SERVICE SYSTEM ORDER TO REPORT FOR INDUCTION

To: All 4-H Recruits
Goshen County, Wyoming
From: The General of the Big Foot

Greetings,

You are hereby ordered for induction into 4-H BOOT CAMP of the United States and to report to

HAVEN ON THE ROCK THURSDAY, JUNE 13, 2013 - FRIDAY, JUNE 14, 2013.

Sincerely,

General of the Big Foot

IMPORTANT NOTICE

4-H BOOT CAMP is open to all 4-H recruits, 8 to 12 years old (as of January 1.) Non-4-H recruits attend at a higher cost. Recruits sleep in bunk beds in cabins and are supervised by trained 4-H sergeants (aka teen counselors.) Boys and girls have separate cabins and restroom areas. Generals (aka adult volunteers) and a Medic (Camp Nurse) of the Big Foot are on grounds at all times.

4-H BOOT CAMP activities include hiking, campfires, PT, games, classes, flags ceremonies, songs, crafts, skits, adventures and surprises! As a result of 4-H BOOT CAMP, recruits will learn responsibility, independence, leadership skills and teamwork while having FUN!

A bus leaves the Extension Office for 4-H BOOT CAMP at 8:30 am to transport recruits to Camp. Recruits can also be delivered directly to Haven on the Rock no later than 9 am. Families of recruits are invited to a carry-in supper on Friday evening at 6:30 pm at Haven on the Rock.

If you have questions, contact the draft board (aka Extension Office) at 532-2436 or at mbritin@uwyo.edu.
